

Shall take oath.

A
precinct, who shall attend with the registration books, after being sworn by some person authorized to administer oaths, to conduct the election fairly and impartially, according to the constitution and laws of the state, shall open the polls and superintend the same until the close of the election; they shall keep poll books in which shall be entered the name of every person who shall vote, and at the close of the election they shall certify the same over the proper signatures and deposit them with the said governing body of said city or town.

Persons qualified to vote.

SEC. 9. No person not qualified under the general law of the state to vote for members of the general assembly shall be entitled to register and vote in any city election; and every person who is qualified under the general law of the state to vote for members of the general assembly shall be entitled to register and vote in any city election. Every person who shall present himself for registration shall state under oath how long he has resided in the state and city in which he offers to vote, when he became twenty one years of age, how long he has resided in the ward or precinct in which he offers to register, where he resides, giving number of the house in which he resides, and if not numbered he shall designate the same by streets, and if the elector has been previously admitted to register in any other ward or precinct in the town he shall not be allowed to register again in another ward or precinct there or until he produces a certificate of the registrar of the former ward or precinct that said elector has removed from said ward or precinct and that his name has been erased from the ward or precinct from which he has removed; and the identity of any person claiming the right to be registered in any ward or precinct by virtue of such certificate with the person therein named shall be proved by the oath of the claimant, and when required by the registrar, by the oath of at least one other elector. Every person who is qualified to register shall take the oath required in the general law of the state for persons registering as electors in any town election in the state.

Persons presenting themselves for registration shall take oath.

Identity of elector proven.

No registration allowed on day of election.

SEC. 10. No registration shall be allowed on the day of election, but if any person shall give satisfactory evidence to the registrar and judges of election that he has become of the age of twenty-one years on the day of election, or has for any other reason on that day become entitled to register and vote, he shall be allowed to register and vote.

Persons may be challenged on day of election.

SEC. 11. On the day of election any elector may and the registrar and judges of election shall challenge the vote of any person who may be known or suspected not to be a duly qualified voter.

Registrar and judges shall determine cause of challenge.

SEC. 12. When any person is challenged the registrar and judges of election shall hear and determine the cause of challenge under